PARENT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Date :

OBJECTIVES:

Strengthen Parent-Teacher Communication: The PTA promotes effective communication between parents and teachers regarding students' academic progress, behaviour, and needs. It encourages both to work together for the overall benefit of the child.

Promote Holistic Development: The PTA supports the academic, emotional, social, physical, and moral development of students. It encourages activities that build students' confidence, creativity, skills, and positive values.

Address Students' Needs and Concerns: The PTA provides a platform to identify and discuss students' educational, behavioural, and personal challenges. It encourages parents and teachers to work together to find appropriate solutions.

Encourage Parental Participation: The PTA motivates parents to actively participate in their children's education and school activities. Their involvement strengthens the connection between home and school.

Support School Activities and Improvement: The PTA supports educational, cultural, sports, and co-curricular programmes conducted by the school. It also contributes suggestions and support for improving school facilities and the learning environment.

Ensure Student Well-Being: The PTA promotes a safe, supportive, inclusive, and child-friendly environment for students. It creates awareness among parents about children's health, safety, emotional well-being, discipline, and responsible behaviour.
